GOD OF LOVE AND LIFE
FATHER, SON and HOLY SPIRIT

“Tears may flow in the night, but joy comes in the morning.” Psalm30:5

These words define the life of Jesus on earth. After the misery and desolation of Good Friday came the resplendent joy of Easter morning. It is our destiny to repeat in our lives the experience of Christ.

Life on earth can too often be a Calvary for us, but we know that Easter will follow as it did for Christ. Let us draw courage in that thought. (Father James Turro in his book Conversion: Reflections on Life and Faith)

Rejoice and have a Blessed Easter and may your life be joyful in Christ.

IN PERSON ONLY NOTHING IS SO BEAUTIFUL AS SPRING Sunday, April 16 1:00 – 4:00 PM
When weeds, in wheels, shoot long and lovely and lush...

Gerard Manley Hopkins (1844-1889), convert, Jesuit priest and creation mystic used the power of his senses to meet God in nature, and expressed his experience in poetry which is both challenging and consoling. Hopkins saw God working in him as quietly but unceasingly as God works in the growth of flowers and trees. After a brief introduction to the poet's life and writings, we will delve more deeply into a few poems with time to experience God in the natural beauty that is Francis House. Led by S. Lisa Breslin, SSJ. Donation: $25

EVENING ZOOM SERIES ASCENDING WITH THE LORD IN THE EVERYDAY 5 Thursdays 7:00 – 8:00 PM
April 13 April 20 April 27 May 4 May 11

What was it like for the Apostles to spend time with Jesus after his Resurrection? The experience of "losing" Jesus must have made every subsequent encounter more meaningful. Why not treat yourself to a Post-Easter retreat using daily reflections from Mark Thibodeaux, S.J.'s book Ascending with Ignatius? The Risen Lord would love to have your company! Led by S. Marie. Donation: $50

PRAYING WITH THE RESURRECTION NARRATIVES Tuesday, April 18 9:30 AM – 1:00 PM

The Solemnity of Easter comes and goes so quickly, we hardly have a chance to savor its Mystery. We will take a few hours to drink deeply of the hopeful and consoling Presence of Jesus as He appeared to His Apostles and friends and as He continues to manifest His resurrected Presence in our own lives. This will be a wonderful morning of prayer and the true celebration of Resurrection. Led by S. Marcy. Donation: $25, includes lunch; Zoom $20.

EASTER THOUGHTS FROM FR. JOY

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again to judge the living & dead. In the darkness of the vigil night, we experience the light of a new fire. The light symbolizes the glory of God in His Son, Jesus, who is the light of the world. We are no longer people of darkness. We are people of the light. During the procession with the Paschal Candle, we sang the "Light of Christ." The Paschal Candle is lit during the Easter season, at baptisms & funerals to remind us of the light of the risen Christ. At the Vigil, we bless the baptismal water, renew our baptismal promises & sprinkle ourselves with holy water. The baptismal water symbolizes death to sin & a new life in Christ.

Jesus triumphed over sin & death. He won for us redemption, salvation & eternal life. What would we do if we were Christ? For 3 years we would have taught peace, forgiveness and healed the sick. Then we would have been arrested on a false charge & betrayed by one of our trusted friends. We would be condemned to death, tortured & left to die on a cross. Through the power of God, we will find ourselves awake, alive and emerge from our tombs. What would we do first? Most of us would go back to Pilate, his soldiers & high priests who condemned us. In the fullness of our resurrected glory, we would show them the evil things they had done. The risen Christ, instead, gave peace to all.

Jesus' first appearance is to Mary Magdalene. She came to the tomb to provide respect & dignity to Jesus. She soon recognizes the risen Lord. She was commissioned to proclaim the Good News of the resurrection to His apostles. Jesus then appeared to His apostles & disciples & strengthened their faith. The Risen Christ greeted them with words of peace, not with words of anger.

We are an Easter people. People of the Resurrection. Easter is filled with the promise of new life. Nature, too, is awakening with new life. The Easter promise of new life is realized through forgiveness, reconciliation, peace, compassion & love. The Easter promise encourages us to rise above the violence, hatred, guilt & shame of Good Friday. We become people of the resurrection by becoming selfless, self-giving, free persons of love & peace, like Christ. Let this Easter season be a time of new beginnings in our lives. It is the perfect time to bring the peace & joy of Christ's resurrection to our families, friend circles, communities & the whole world. The faith of the Church is truly based on the hope of resurrection & eternal life. May we joyfully anticipate Easter's ultimate realization of resurrection and eternal life at the end of our earthly journey. Let go and let God! May God Bless You.
