FROM FR. JOE:

Film About Mother Teresa to Hit Theaters in October

A film presenting the life of Saint Teresa of Calcutta, commonly referred to as Mother Teresa, will be premiering in theaters for two days in October.

In theaters on Oct 3-4, Mother Teresa: No Greater Love is airing in more than 960 locations across the United States. The film was produced by the Knights of Columbus, the world's largest Catholic fraternal organization.

The film displays the life of the twentieth century saint and the impact both she and her Missionaries of Charity have had on the people they have served throughout the world. The Missionaries of Charity are a religious community dedicated to serving the poorest in society.

"The Missionaries of charity are no publicity seekers": David Nagliere, director of the film told CNA. "So, to have the opportunity to highlight the incredible work they do and the way that they live the Gospel, I think this story can positively impact people's lives and draw them closer to their faith."

Filmed on five continents, the documentary features "incredible access" to the apostolates run by the Missionaries of Charity, Naglieri said.

One of his favorite parts of the film includes footage in Kenya, where the Missionaries of Charity are caring for children with deformities and serious developmental disabilities.

The scene includes a Missionary of Charity sister feeding a baby with hydrocephalus, a condition in which fluid builds up in the brain.

"To see these children...and just the love and the care for that child was just something that deeply moved me," he said.

Commentary from Catholic voices is included in the film, including Kelly; Bishop Robert Barron, Jim Wahlberg, a filmmaker who credits Mother Teresa as being instrumental in his conversion; Jim Towey, a friend of Mother Teresa; Father Brian Kolodiejchuk, postulator of Mother Teresa's cause of canonization; and Father Donald Haggerty of the Archdiocese of New York. The film is being hosted by the distributor Fathom Events

Tickets for the documentary can be purchased
On line at Fathom Events.

GOD OF LOVE AND LIFE FATHER, SON and HOLY SPIRIT

“No, you have approached Mount Zion and the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem and countless angels in festal gathering, ... and God the judge of all, and the spirits made perfect.” Hebrews 12:22-23

These words describe what those of us who are followers of Jesus will see as we approach heaven.

Pray that your spirit will be made perfect so you will be at the festal gathering. Reject all evil, especially the evil of abortion.
