GOD OF LOVE AND LIFE
FATHER, SON and HOLY SPIRIT

“And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their country by another way.” Matthew 2:12

The warning was given to Magi so as to prevent Herod from killing the infant Jesus. Herod feared losing power, prestige, money and life style thus he was willing to kill an infant, a new born to keep what he had.

How unfortunate that 2,023 years later we are still killing babies and infants for the very same reasons. BE and ACT PRO-LIFE!

Feast Days for the Week

January 8th....Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord
January 9th....Feast of the Baptism of the Lord

7 Ways To Keep in Mind on How to Enjoy Holiday Celebrations

1. PRAY IN ADVANCE. Pray as you get ready. Pray on the way there. Lay the seeds of positive vibes by preparing the way for good fun. Prayer never hurts anything and certainly helps everything. Pray for your heart's desires. God can handle it, I promise. You can honestly tell him to please shut Aunt Susie's mouth from hurting my feelings. Soften her heart to see me with love and then wait and see how she acts. I bet it is better than you had anticipated.
2. BE ON TIME. I was late a few times for a Holiday celebration, and they will never let me forget it. It's all I heard about for years. I was labeled the annoying late bird. Don't give them a reason to give you a hard time, be on time, if not early. It took me a long time to lose that negative label, but I did. I did it by being on time for all future events.
3. DON'T TALK POLITICS. These days nothing good will come from a conversation about who is right or wrong in their choice for leadership. Change the subject, leave the room, or strike up a conversation with someone else about anything else.
4. HELP THE HOST. Whether it is to clear the table, set the table, wash, or dry the dishes, it doesn't matter if you help. Don't ask, don't wait to be asked, just do it. A little kindness goes a long way and can help to relieve the stress looming in the room. (Proverbs 25:22) says, "In doing this, you will heap burning coals on the head, and the Lord will reward you" This scripture implies melting one's heart with burning shame.
5. SPECIAL DIET. If you have a special diet, whether chosen or for health reasons, don't expect your party to supply what you need; bring it yourself. It will take a load of pressure off the host, who may not know where to begin to fulfill your need and if they do surprise you with the effort of adding a recipe with your dietary needs, great! More food for you to eat.
6. Don't TALK ABOUT THE PAST, unless it is a happy memory. Nothing, and I mean nothing good, will come from rehashing past wrongs and irritating an old wound. Let it go! Save it for another time, or just let it disappear from your mind.
7. BE THANKFUL. Life is so short and sweating the small and big stuff is not healthy. Enjoy the time you have together with friends and family. Fill your heart with love for them, where they are, not where you are or where you want them to be. Jesus said in (John 13:34), "A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another."
