Pope Francis in Trieste:

Catholics Called to Heal 'Wounded Heart' of Democracy

Pope Francis delivers the concluding address of the 50th Italian Catholic Social Week in Trieste, and calls on the Church to help correct the crisis of democracy through participation and political charity. By Devin Watkins

"Just as the crisis of democracy crosses various realities and Nations," he said, "so too does the attitude of responsibility towards social transformations call all Christians, wherever they live and work, in every part of the world."

Participation built on solidarity and subsidiarity

Pope Francis then offered an image of the crisis of democracy as "a wounded heart," in which corruption and social exclusion can abound and power becomes self-referential and incapable of serving its constituents.

"The very word 'democracy' does not simply coincide with the vote of the people but requires creating the conditions for everyone to express themselves and participate," he said.

Democratic participation, he added, must be instilled at a young age, so that citizens embrace a critical sense "regarding ideological and populist temptations."

The Pope called on Christians to promote a fruitful dialogue between religion and society, while upholding the dignity of the person.

"The principles of solidarity and subsidiarity," he said, help build the bonds of democracy, since they encourage participation and overcome indifference, which he said is "a cancer of democracy."

Fraternity fosters collective aspirations

The Pope went on to uphold the goal of democratic participation with the image of a "healed heart."

"If we look around," he said, "we see many signs of the Holy Spirit's action in the lives of families and communities, even in the fields of economics, technology, politics, and society." Fraternity, added Pope Francis, "makes social relationships flourish," and engenders a spirit of collective aspiration.

"A democracy with a healed heart," he said, "continues to cultivate dreams for the future, engages, and calls for personal and community involvement."

Political love holds politics to higher standard

Catholics, said the Pope, must look beyond quick fixes for democracy's ills and never retreat into a "marginal or private faith."

"This means not so much demanding to be heard," he said, "but above all having the courage to make proposals on behalf of justice and peace in the public debate."

Christian engagement in politics must take on the aspects of "political love" or "political charity," which allows politics to "rise to its responsibilities and move beyond polarizations".

"Let us train ourselves in this love to circulate it in a world short of civil passion," concluded Pope Francis. "Let us learn to better walk together as God's people, to be leaven of participation among the people to which we belong."

PRO-LIFE CORNER

GOD OF LOVE AND LIFE FATHER, SON and HOLY SPIRIT

“So they went off and preached repentance.” Mark 6:12

Repentance is the turning away from evil and turning to God. It applies equally to individuals, communities, religious groups and nations. Today, more than ever, there is a need to turn away from evil, the evils of child mutilation and trafficking, perversion in the law and schools, stealing, assaults and murders.

It calls for repentance. For as Mother Teresa said “We must not be surprised when we hear of murders, killings, of wars, or of hatred ... If a mother can kill her own child, what is left but for us to kill each other?”

Repent, Seek Forgiveness, Love God, Do His Will and Vote Life

PRAYER ANTHOLOGY #61

Focus Point: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name..... Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus..... Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit..... These are the first prayers that we all “learned”. They are words of praise, and rightfully so! It is our obligation to give praise to God, and a wonderful way of saying “thank you” for everything good in our lives. Are we reciting these words routinely or with focus and attention? If we were fortunate enough to be “brought up well” in our faith, we also learned to have a conversation with God, and to seek Him out in times of need. We tend to put our heart and soul into these prayers because we are “asking for God’s assistance”. These “prayers of petition” help us to develop a deeper relationship with God and that is SO important to our prayer life, because it helps us to truly love the Lord! And the more we Love God, the more we want to praise Him. It brings focus and intensity to our prayers of praise, and that is what our amazing God truly deserves! As Fr. Joe explains it, “We should be purposeful in all prayer, not mechanical. We should never just rattle off a bunch of prayers. Effective prayers for any purpose require thought, honesty and emotion!”

Prayer for Attentive Prayer: Dear Lord, Thank you for the great gift of my Christian upbringing! I am so blessed to have learned, as a child, to pray. Help me to learn, as an adult, to pray better! Bring me into a deeper relationship with You, and help me to greatly enjoy my time with You during prayer by filling my heart with the warmth, intensity and encouragement of Your love! Remind me to pray daily with attention! Help me to love You SO much that I yearn to spend more time with You. Help me to internalize the mindset of paying attention to the words and meaning of the routine prayers that give You praise and honor. Through attentive prayer, may I become a better person. And may I attentively and effectively pass this concept on to the next generation! Amen

Pray For Our Heroes: All our parishioners and friends who are serving in the Military, as well as our Police, Firefighters, First Responders, and all who are put in harm’s way for our protection, especially:
