From the Desk of Fr. Joe:

A concise Catholic history of the doctrine of the Holy Trinity of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit

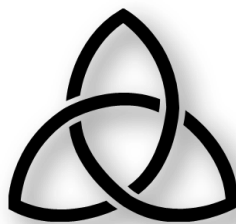

I generated this summary using AI on google. To give a brief summary, as well as some of the sources AI used to help with a more complete study. Fr. Joe

The Catholic doctrine of the Holy Trinity, the belief in one God existing as three distinct persons – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit – developed over several centuries, though its roots are present in the New Testament

Key Points in its Development:

- Scriptural Roots: While not explicitly formulated as a doctrine in the New Testament, the Bible contains many passages that imply a triadic understanding of God, including the Great Commission (Matthew 28:19) and Pauline blessings.
- Early Church Fathers: Early theologians like Justin Martyr and Tertullian, during the 2nd and 3rd centuries, started developing more explicit language about the Trinity.
- Tertullian is credited with coining the term "Trinity" (Trinitas) and expressing the concept of "one substance in three persons".
- Origen, another influential figure, emphasized the distinction between the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, contributing to the development of terms like hypostasis (person).

Holy Trinity Symbol

...Continued

- Council of Nicaea (325 AD): This council primarily addressed the Arian heresy, which denied the full divinity of Jesus. The Nicene Creed affirmed Christ as "God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one substance with the Father" (homoousios).
- Council of Constantinople (381 AD): This council further developed the Nicene Creed to explicitly affirm the divinity of the Holy Spirit, stating that he is "Lord, the giver of life," and is worshipped and glorified with the Father and the Son.
- St. Augustine: Augustine of Hippo significantly contributed to the understanding of the Trinity by using a psychological analogy, comparing the divine persons to the mind's faculties of memory, understanding, and will.
- Medieval and Later Developments: The doctrine was further explored and refined throughout the Middle Ages, with theologians like Thomas Aquinas integrating Aristotelian philosophy to understand the divine persons as "subsistent relations".

In essence, the Catholic Church's understanding of the Trinity evolved through a process of theological reflection, guided by scripture and shaped by early church councils and influential theologians, resulting in the affirmation of one God in three co-equal and co-eternal persons.

"Helping Feed The World!"

Americas Gleaned Seafood

Dear Father Joe, Father Joy and St Pio Parish Leadership,

On behalf of Americas Gleaned Seafood, we express our sincere gratitude for your St Pio and Sacred Heart's generous support of our cause.

Your charitable generosity is not only a reflection of the parishes' commitment to living the Gospel but also acts a beacon of hope for countless families in need throughout our states' local communities. Last year, AGS proudly distributed the equivalent of more than 200,000 meals. Your contribution plays a pivotal role, sustaining and expanding this vital program.

With each donation, you help us reduce food waste, support our fishing community, and, most importantly, nourish individuals and families who might otherwise go without. We are inspired by your commitment to selfless service and are honored to have you as a partner in this humble mission.

AGS is committed to expanding our reach, connecting with more fishing ports, and ensuring that the ocean's bounty reaches those who need it most. Together, we are making a tangible difference in the lives of many.

We are truly thankful for your kindness in "Helping Feed The World" and look forward to continuing this journey with you by our side.

Sincerely,

Samuel Zimmer

Spiritual Adoption Please spiritually adopt an unborn baby. Every day over 4,000 babies are killed by abortion. They have so little protection only the hand of God can end this massacre. Prayer is the best weapon to help them - the most effective.

Say this prayer daily for 9 months to save a baby's life:

*Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much.
I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of

GOD OF LOVE AND LIFE FATHER, SON and HOLY SPIRIT

The Most Holy Trinity

A prayer inspired by a homily at the height of Covid pandemic on June 5, 2021 by our pastor Father Joseph G. Hlubik regarding troubled times.

God of Love and Life Father, Son and Holy Spirit

God of love and life; Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

Our Father, I believe in you. Our Father I Love you. Our Father I adore you, I worship you, I bless you, I praise you, I honor you and I glorify you. Our Father I thank you for your being, for your great glory, all of creation, everything that is good, worthy and holy and for your great love and mercy. Our Father I trust in you.

Lord Jesus Christ, I believe in you. Lord Jesus Christ I love you. Lord Jesus Christ I adore you, I worship you - my Lord and my God. Lord Jesus Christ I thank you for your being, your conception, your birth, your life, your suffering under Pontius Pilate, your crucifixion and death, your decent into hell, your resurrection and ascension. I thank you for redemption and salvation. Lord Jesus Christ I trust in you.

Lord and Giver of Life, I believe in you. Lord and Giver of Life I love you. Lord and Giver of Life I adore you, I worship you, I bless you, I praise you, I honor you and I glorify you. Lord and Giver of Life I thank you for your great glory, for my conception, being and life, for your protection, your gifts, your fruits and your many graces. Lord and Giver of Life I trust in you. Amen.

EXPERIENCE, THE BEST TEACHER

A reflection for June 15

If we wanted to learn about the Russian people and understand their culture, we might do so in a variety of ways.

We could study the history of the nation. We could read the translated works of acclaimed Russian authors. We could watch English-captioned Russian movies and television programs. We could take a course in the Russian language. We could seek out American news programs focused on the country. We could visit neighborhoods with a high concentration of Russian immigrants.

But the best way to learn about the Russian people would be to visit their country. Living in Russia for several months and experiencing daily life would teach us more than any book, movie, news report, or language class. A personal experience of Russia and its people would be the best teacher!

This Sunday, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. We celebrate our belief that the One God is a Trinity of Persons, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

We can try to understand this central doctrine of Christianity in much the same way we might try to understand another people or culture. We could search for passages in the scriptures, such as this Sunday's Gospel (John 16:12-15), that reference the Persons of the Trinity. We could read a historical study showing how the Church came to understand God as a Trinity of Divine Persons.

We could consult the Catechism of the Catholic Church to see what it says about the Trinity. We could read the writings of renowned theologians or take a course on the topic at a local Catholic college or seminary. And we could pay close attention to the homilies that will be preached at Mass this Trinity Sunday.

All these things would give us an understanding of the Holy Trinity. But perhaps the best way to learn about the Holy Trinity is to consider how we are presently experiencing the action of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit in our lives. Our experience of the Holy Trinity will help us to understand what we profess in the Nicene Creed at every Sunday Mass.

We experience the "one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth" in the beauty of a wildflower and in the stars and galaxies that brighten the vastness of the universe. We call upon Almighty God in a warm and loving way as we address him as "Our Father" and recognize that he has given us life and made us his children.

We experience the presence of the "one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God" when we receive the Eucharist, listen to his voice in the Gospels, recognize his saving action in the sacraments, and feel his care and compassion in the kindness of our fellow Christians. We are touched by the depth of his love when we gaze upon the crucifix or kneel before the tabernacle.

We experience the action of the "Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life who proceeds from the Father and the Son" when we are inspired to do good and build up God's kingdom, when we come to know the meaning of our lives, and when we are empowered to resist the temptations that can pull us into the darkness of sin and diminish our dignity as children of God.

This Sunday's Solemnity of the Holy Trinity is an opportunity to recognize how we are experiencing the presence of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit in our lives. Experience is the best teacher.

Prayer after Communion Dear Lord, I give You thanks for the gift of the Sacrament of the Eucharist. And through my confession to You, I am strengthened in my desire to reject sin and obtain Your gift of obedience. Please let the Holy Spirit stay with me and remind me that You suffered on the Cross in order to nourish us with Your Body and Blood. Let me remember that I hope to receive eternal life and Your grace through communion. I need this to keep Your love, peace and true joy in my heart. I thank You for letting me grow in Your love through this blessed sacrament, so I can show that love to others. May Your body and blood continue to renew me, in God's name I pray. Amen
