Song (sequence) for the Feast of Corpus Christi Zion Praise your Savior (Lauda Sion Salvatorem )

Written by St. Thomas Aquinas, Doctor of the Church in 1264

What follows is a prose translation of the hymn
by Fr. Joseph Connelly.

ZION, PRAISE YOUR SAVIOR. Praise your Savior. Praise your leader and shepherd in hymns and canticles. Praise him as much as you can, for he is beyond all praising and you will never be able to praise him as he merits. But today a theme worthy of particular praise is put before us—the living and life-giving bread that, without any doubt, was given to the Twelve at table during the holy supper. Therefore, let our praise be full and resounding and our soul's rejoicing full of delight and beauty, for this is the festival day to commemorate the first institution of this table.

At this table of the new King, the new law's new Pasch puts an end to the old Pasch. The new displaces the old, the reality the shadow and light the darkness. Christ wanted what he did at the supper to be repeated in his memory. And so we, in accordance with his holy directions, consecrate bread and wine to be salvation's Victim.

Christ's followers know by faith that bread is changed into his flesh and wine into his blood. Man cannot understand this, cannot perceive it; but a lively faith affirms that the change, which is outside the natural course of things, takes place. Under the different species, which are now signs only and not their own reality, there lie hid wonderful realities. His body is our food, his blood our drink. And yet Christ remains entire under each species. The communicant receives the complete Christ—uncut, unbroken and undivided. Whether one receive or a thousand, the one receives as much as the thousand. Nor is Christ diminished by being received. The good and the wicked alike receive him, but with the unlike destiny of life or death. To the wicked it is death, but life to the good. See how different is the result, though each receives the same. Last of all, if the sacrament is broken, have no doubt. Remember there is as much in a fragment as in an unbroken host. There is no division of the reality, but only a breaking of the sign; nor does the breaking diminish the condition or size of the One hidden under the sign.

Behold, the bread of angels is become the pilgrim's food; truly it is bread for the sons, and is not to be cast to dogs. It was prefigured in type when Isaac was brought as an offering, when a lamb was appointed for the Pasch and when manna was given to the Jews of old.

Jesus, good shepherd and true bread, have mercy on us; feed us and guard us. Grant that we find happiness in the land of the living. You know all things, can do all things, and feed us here on earth. Make us your guests in heaven, co-heirs with you and companions of heaven's citizens. Amen. Alleluia.

Rev. Joseph G. Hlubik

Prayer Anthology #60

Focus Point:

Throughout our Mass we hear the word "Peace" numerous times. We offer each other a sign of Peace. But, where do we find Peace? Peace in our Heart, Peace in our Home and even Peace in our struggles. One way is through Prayer. And in this month of devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, we are reminded that His Sacred Heart insures His love for us and that we can turn to Jesus for guidance. We can Pray to His Sacred Heart, giving to Him our worries and finding love and forgiveness....and Peace.

Prayer for Personal Peace:

Dear Lord, I pray to Your Sacred Heart that You grant me love, forgiveness and peace in my heart and help me to unite my heart to Yours. May Your peace help me to find joy and hope, even in life's struggles. Let Your Sacred Heart guide me to receive You and Your love through the Gift of reconciliation and the Holy Eucharist. I offer You my humble heart and ask You to guide my heart and the hearts of those I love and to keep us close to You. "May our hearts beat in unison."

I am very grateful for both the support and generosity of our two parishes: THANK YOU SO MUCH!

Know that you will be in my daily prayers, and please keep me in your prayers. Together, let us continue to take the message in the Gospel out to those around us.

Deacon Jim

PRO-LIFE CORNER

GOD OF LOVE AND LIFE FATHER, SON and HOLY SPIRIT

"Take it this is my body. This is my blood of the covenant."
Mark 14:22-24

When Jesus instituted the Eucharist He gave His Church the source and summit of the Christian life. In order to worthily receive Our Lord's body and blood we must believe that what the Church teaches is true, have received baptism for the forgiveness of sins and new birth, and must live in keeping with what Christ taught. CCC 1355

The Church teaches "you shall not kill the embryo by abortion and shall not cause the newborn to perish" (CCC 2271). In the Sermon on the Mount Christ Himself reiterated "You shall not kill". This must be believed in order to be Catholic and to worthily receive Our Lord's body and blood.

Do you know that the Chicago Teachers Union is demanding a contract which includes free abortion services.
