FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Policy for Funeral and Memorial Masses at Sacred Heart and St. Pio's

Because of the complexity of picking funerals dates, and due to cremations or other burial arrangements, waiting for a special occasion, or for certain people to be present, Funeral Masses are often delayed for weeks and even months. A Funeral Mass should be said for the deceased as soon after they die as is possible. The purpose of the Funeral Mass is to pray for the soul of the dead person and to console the family. As Catholics, we firmly believe in purgatory. Most of us, with our human weaknesses, realize we are sinners. We want our beloved dead to be in the fullness of God's presence as soon possible. That's why we celebrate a Funeral Mass. A Funeral Mass for the deceased should be celebrated within a few days or a week after the person dies.

Others want to celebrate a "life remembrance," and gather friends and families. That is fine, but it is a separate event. You can even have a priest or another person lead the prayers at these events. You can even do this at a wake service or at a dinner afterward.

If you want to wait for a while after the death of a deceased loved one, you can also request a Memorial Mass be said for them. At the Memorial Mass, the priest celebrant will select the readings and preach. You can request music, if our musicians are available. We will try to accommodate your needs.

The statement below includes part of the General Instruction of the Roman Missal, regarding Funeral Masses and Memorial Masses.

Eulogies will not be part of either a Funeral or Memorial Mass.

The norms below will now be observed at both of our parishes.

We will celebrate a Funeral Mass if the deceased's body is present (casket or cremains) within 3 weeks of death, if a body is not present, or more than 3 weeks after death, we will celebrate a Memorial Mass

Excerpt from The General Instruction of the Roman Missal:

Chapter VIII: Masses and Prayers for Various Needs and Occasions and Masses for the Dead

II. Masses for the Dead

Published by The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops

<https://www.usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/the-mass/general-instruction-of-the-roman-missal>

382. At Funeral Masses there should usually be a short Homily, but to the exclusion of a funeral eulogy of any kind.

383. The faithful, and especially those of the deceased's family, should be urged to participate in the Eucharistic Sacrifice offered for the deceased person, also by receiving Holy Communion.

384. If the Funeral Mass is directly joined to the rite of burial, once the Prayer after Communion has been said and omitting the Concluding Rites, there takes place the Rite of Final Commendation or Farewell. This rite is celebrated only if the body is present.

385. In the arranging and choosing of the variable parts of the Mass for the Dead, especially the Funeral Mass (for example, orations, readings, and the Universal Prayer), pastoral considerations bearing upon the deceased, the family, and those attending should be kept in mind.

PRO-LIFE CORNER

GOD OF LOVE AND LIFE
FATHER, SON and HOLY SPIRIT

"He took the child by the hand and said to her 'Talitha koum,' which means, 'Little girl, I say to you, arise.'" Mark 5:41

By raising the child back to life Our Lord, Jesus Christ, demonstrates once again that His is the kingdom of light, love, life and all that is good, holy and worthy. On the other hand, Satan is of the dominion of darkness, hate, death and evil.

Catholics, by virtue of their faith and love, embrace Jesus, the kingdom of light, life and birth. We reject Satan and his dominion of darkness, death and killing of babies!

Do you know that Pro Life Campaign in Ireland encourages voters to consider political parties' abortion stance in coming elections.

Embrace Jesus, Embrace Life, Vote Life

Why Become a Hospice Volunteer?

The simplest gifts are often the most profound. If you've got time, empathy, and compassion, you have the ability to support those nearing end of life. If you have been searching for meaningful ways to spend your time, we invite you to explore the role of hospice volunteer with VNA Health Group.

Companionship visits in patient's homes or facilities in Monmouth or Ocean Counties, administrative projects, or comforting phone calls from our Toms River office, are just some of the ways in which our volunteers support patients and their families. A Training will be provided by members of the VNA Hospice Team on 3 consecutive Mondays:

August 5th, 12th &, 19th 2024 10:00 am – 3:00 pm

Advanced registration is required. Volunteers must attend all 3 sessions.

RESTORING THE DAMAGE

A reflection for June 30, The Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Imagine a sculptor chiseling a block of marble into a stunning statue, then seeing it damaged by a hammer. Visualize a painter using his palette of colors to depict a vibrant landscape, then finding a hole cut into the completed canvas. Envision an architect creating an innovative, award-winning structure, then discovering that a contractor had altered its most acclaimed features.

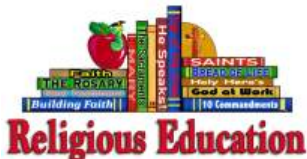

Those who give birth to works of beauty do all they can to protect and conserve what they have made. That is equally true for God, the Divine Artist, who created the universe and then made man and woman to be the summit of his creative work. Though they had a beginning, they were designed to last forever.

However, the beauty of these humans was damaged. Not by God, who like any artist would not harm his own work, but rather by the devil who led humanity astray. The work of the Divine Artist was damaged. Sin, death, and disorder became part of the human experience. However, God, the Divine Artist, did not leave humanity in its damaged state. God sent his Son to repair the harm caused by humanity's yielding to the temptations of the devil.

We saw the Son of God doing just that in our Gospel. There, Jesus cured a woman who had seen her life slowly bleed away for 12 years. He also restored life to a young girl who had died suddenly. Jesus Christ became the source of healing for them, and through his life, passion, death, and resurrection, he has become the source of healing for all those damaged by sin. As we hear his Word, celebrate the Sacraments, encounter him in his Church, and as we receive his life-giving Body and Blood in the Eucharist, the beauty that is ours as creations of God is being restored.

Any artist would make every effort to bring his or her damaged work back to its original beauty. This is equally true of God, the Divine Artist.
