Vatican Releases Pastoral Reflection on Christian Engagement with Social Media

by Courtney Mares.

Vatican City, May 29, 2023 / 04:30 am

The 20-page text, “Towards Full Presence: A Pastoral Reflection on Engagement with Social Media” published on May 29 addresses the challenges Christians face in using social media.

Topics covered in the pastoral reflection include information overload, constant scrolling, not giving others one’s full attention, being an “influencer,” witnessing to Christ, “digital detox,” the need for silence, intentional listening, and building community in a fragmented world.

“One significant cognitive challenge of digital culture is the loss of our ability to think deeply and purposefully,” it warns. “We scan the surface and remain in the shallows, instead of deeply pondering realities.”

The Vatican Dicastery for Communication published the document, which was signed by its lay prefect Paolo Ruffini and its Argentine secretary Monsignor Lucio A. Ruiz, who cite many of Pope Francis’ speeches from past World Communications Days.

The text is “not meant to be precise ‘guidelines’ for pastoral ministry,” the dicastery clarified, but seeks to promote a common reflection on how to foster meaningful and caring relationships on social media.

Robbing our attention

The Vatican’s pastoral reflection posits that social media’s constant demand for people’s attention “is similar to the process through which any temptation enters into the human heart and draws our attention away from the only word that is really meaningful and life-giving, the Word of God.”

“Different websites, applications, and platforms are programmed to prey on our human desire for acknowledgment, and they are constantly fighting for people’s attention. Attention itself has become the most valuable asset and commodity,” it says.

“Instead of focusing on one issue at a time, our continuous partial attention rapidly passes from one topic to the other. In our ‘always on’ condition, we face the temptation to post instantly since we are physiologically hooked on digital stimulation, always wanting more content in endless scrolling and frustrated by any lack of updates.”

The text highlights the need for silence and for schools, families, and communities to carve out times for people to detach from digital devices.

It warns that space for “deliberate listening, attentiveness, and discernment of the truth is becoming rare.”

“Without silence and the space to think slowly, deeply, and purposefully, we risk losing not only cognitive capacities but also the depth of our interactions, both human and divine.”

Social media pitfalls

The document raises red flags about “pitfalls to avoid” with social media, such as aggressive and negative speech shared under the “cloak of pseudonymity.”

“Along the ‘digital highways’ many people are hurt by division and hatred. We cannot ignore it. We cannot be just silent passersby. In order to humanize digital environments, we must not forget those who are ‘left behind.’ We can only see what is going on if we look from the perspective of the wounded man in the parable of the Good Samaritan,” it says.

The text notes how algorithms’ content personalization can reinforce people’s own opinions without exposure to other ideas, which at times can lead to “encouraging extreme behaviors.”

It also raises concerns about how social media companies treat people as commodities whose “profiles and data are sold.” The text underlines that social media “is not free: we are paying with minutes of our attention and bytes of our data.”

The Most Holy Trinity

A prayer inspired by a homily on June 5, 2021 by our pastor Father Joseph G. Hlubik regarding troubled times.

God of love and life, Father, Son and Holy Spirit:

God the Father, our Father, I believe in you. I love you. I adore and worship you. I thank you for being and for everything holy, worthy and good. I trust in you.

God the Son, Lord Jesus Christ, I believe in you. I love you. I adore and worship you. I thank you for your being, conception, birth, life, passion, death, resurrection and ascension. I thank you for redemption and salvation. I trust in you.

God the Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, I believe in you. I love you. I adore and worship you. I thank you for life, your protection, gifts and graces. I trust in you. Amen.

Padre Pio Prayer Anthology

Our first parish prayer anthology will include many types of prayers. We will begin our collection with prayers that you can use to develop a relationship with God that is more personal and intimate.

Prayer #48:

Focus Point: During the month of June, we have many opportunities to celebrate special moments in life, one of which is Father's Day! Fathers are important in so many ways, especially because they are a source of strength for so many. A father's responsibility to provide for his child is grounded by his love for that child. His actions reflect his strength and determination. May all fathers and all adults find the inner strength they need to be good role models for all of our children. May they resist the temptations that come their way and may God grace them with His love, support, and enthusiasm. In Fr Joy's words, "When we open ourselves to the Holy Spirit, we become empowered!" Let us use our "power" to teach children to look to Jesus as a source of strength and holiness. May they build an unbreakable bond with their God that will sustain their spirit all the days of their life.

Prayer for Inner Strength

Dear Lord, help me to find the strength, courage and determination to be a moral role model for all those that I meet, most especially our children. May my actions reflect my Christian values. Inspire me to be of help to my community as Jesus was, by showing kindness, forgiveness and compassion to others. May I find the time to develop quality relationships with my children and others who are uncertain of the proper moral values needed to attain the rewards of heaven. Strengthen me so that I never lose my determination to stay focused on this most important task. And each day, bless me with the joy of Your love and peace. Amen.

The Knights of Columbus, Council 8415, provides a container in the vestibule of the Church for the collection of used eyeglasses. They are sent to the Lyons Club. The eyeglasses are tested and sorted by volunteers for use by medical missions and hospitals in the Caribbean, Central and South America, Africa, Asia and Central Europe as well as by American veterans. Please remember to drop your old eyeglasses in the container. Thank you.

PROMISE TO PROTECT PLEDGE TO HEAL SECRETARIAT OF CHILD AND YOUTH PROTECTION

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops and The Diocese of Trenton are committed to the initiatives outlined in the U. S. Bishops' Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People in regard to the report and investigation of sexual abuse allegations involving minors.

The Diocese has in place a Victim's Assistance Coordinator, who is available to obtain support for your needs and help you make a formal complaint of abuse.

If you have been sexually abused as a minor by a member of the clergy or anyone representing the Catholic Church, or if you know of someone who was, you can report that abuse through the diocesan Abuse Hotline: 1 - 888-296-2965 or via email at abuseline@dioceseoftrenton.org

The Diocese encourages anyone with an allegation to also report that abuse to their local law enforcement Agency. The Diocese reports all allegations received to the appropriate county prosecutor's office.

St. Francis Food Pantry in Seaside Heights is opened on Wednesdays from 10am until 12 noon. The demand for donations is great. Please consider bringing some food items with you when you attend Mass each Sunday.

Donations may be left in the bin in the narthex of the Church. If you would like to donate items, and you are unable to carry the packages to Mass, please call Paul Sandy at 732-606-3656. He would be happy to stop by your home to do a pick up. The food pantry is grateful for the support that has been given over the years and hopefully you will continue to support your neighbors who are in need. Thank you!

Listen to WNSW 1430 AM or WWJZ 640AM

I encourage you all to listen to relevant radio. Their mission is to bring Christ to the world through the media. Relevant radio provides interactive Catholic programming 24 hrs/day, 7 days/week. Bless you, Father Joe

If you would like to lift your spirits and learn a little more about your faith and well-being think about attending the St Pio Parish Faith Sharing Group.

They meet once a week on Wednesdays after morning Mass and spend about one hour discussing the readings for the next Sunday and what they mean to us personally. Men and women both are welcome. Please contact Maureen Zebrowski if you are interested or would like more information.
