From the Desk of Fr. Joe:

The Changing High Priesthood Under Roman Rule

When the Hasmoneans ruled Judea, they wanted to also be named as High Priest. However, they were not of the high-priestly family, Zadok, which had been named High Priest by King David and 400 years after. High Priesthood had always been an office for life. Because of their successful military campaigns, leadership, and popularity, a compromise was reached, which is recorded in the 1st book of Maccabees 1 Macc 14:41

(Therefore) “the Judeans and the priests agreed that Simon (Maccabees) shall be their leader and high priest forever, until the arising of a trustworthy prophet, 14:42 and that he shall be their general, and that he shall be responsible for the holy things — to appoint on his own authority those who take care of the cult and of the country, the weapons, and the fortresses...”

Later, Alexander Jannaeus was the first Hasmonean to take the title of king, and he became king around 104/3 BCE. This occurred after he conquered Galilee. Thus, the Hasmoneans became priest-kings. The family was not of the family line of David. This was justified using the story of Melchizedek, the priest-king of Salem (Jerusalem) who blessed Abraham, in the Book of Genesis. Melchizedek was said to have been directly appointed by God, and Abraham as recognizing this by giving him tithes. At that time, The High priestly families were mostly very wealthy and influential families who formed the party called the Saducees.

Not everyone agreed with this, like the community that formed at Qumran, and rejected the High priesthood of the Hasmoneans and those that were High Priests after that. The High Priesthood had been compromised. Various documents of the texts found at Qumran mention the teachers of the community as "kohanim Sons of Zadok", leading some scholars to assume that the community at Qumran included priests who refused to participate in the Hellenization of the priesthood then taking place in Jerusalem.

When Rome conquered Judea in 63 BC, they appointed Herod the Great as King. He appointed and deposed High Priests at will, and did so often because they were very powerful, and he wanted to diminish their power. When he died, Judea was very briefly under Herod Archelaus, who was deposed because of his cruelty. Judea then became a Roman Province. Annas (also Ananus or Ananias) was appointed by the Roman legate Quirinius as the first High Priest of the newly formed Roman province of Judaea in 6 AD. His domination of the High Priesthood carried on through his Son-in Law for about 30 years.

Annas (AD 6-15)

Annas, or Ananias, or Ananus, son of Seth, was appointed high priest by Quirinius, the governor of Syria in AD 6. This Quirinius is also mentioned in Lk 2:2, as the governor of Syria as the time of the birth of Jesus. Annas was finally deposed by the Roman governor Valerius Gratus in AD 15. The next two high priests, including one of his sons, were both deposed after about a year, before Joseph Caiaphas, the son-in-law of Annas, was appointed (Jos Ant 18:2:2).

LET US KNOW A reflection for March 2

Please let us know how we did.

Emails and text messages with that subject line often appear on our digital devices after we have visited a health care provider, made a purchase in a store that has our contact information, or reached out to customer support with an issue we might be having with a product or service.

These messages ask us to complete a survey to rate the person who provided us with a service or helped us with a purchase. However, we do not need a survey to encourage us to evaluate a person's performance. We are continually rating and evaluating those with whom we interact.

We evaluate employers, managers, fellow employees, teachers, neighbors, relatives, friends, as well as political leaders, public servants, coaches, police officers, mechanics and trades people, and even our priests. We are always rating and evaluating people. As we know, pollsters such as Gallup and Rasmussen continually provide us with data about how we judge our government and corporate leaders are doing.

In this Sunday's Gospel (Luke 6:39-45), Jesus speaks about evaluating others. He tells us that before we judge what is negative in others, we need to honestly evaluate ourselves and consider how we are doing.

As Jesus tells us, "Remove the wooden beam from your eye first; then you will see clearly to remove the splinter in your brother's eye."

Jesus challenges us to first take a good look at our own lives before we begin looking for the "splinters" in the lives of others.

One way to respond to that challenge of Jesus is to make time at the end of each day to carefully consider how we have lived. During such an evaluation or an "examination of conscience" as it is traditionally called, we might ask ourselves if our words and conversations that day lifted people up or tore them down, if our actions resulted in good or evil. As Jesus reminds us, "A good person out of the store of goodness in his heart produces good, but an evil person out of a store of evil produces evil."

Such a daily examination of conscience will help us to see more clearly how we are doing in our Christian lives. It would also be a perfect thing to do each evening during the coming days of Lent.

At the end of each day, we might think of the Lord sending us a message, Please let us know how you did.

Guidelines for Lenten penitential season

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

During the days and weeks of penance that lie ahead — from Ash Wednesday, March 5, 2025, until Holy Thursday morning, April 17, 2025 — the Catholic Church throughout the world commemorates the penitential season of Lent ending with the Sacred Triduum of Holy Week. The model Jesus gave us for “these 40 days” was his own experience in the desert and the temptations that followed him there where he encountered Satan face to face. And yet, Jesus, there in the desert – alone, fasting and in intense prayer – beat back the devil and triumphed over temptation, as strong and as unrelenting as it was throughout those 40 days.

We enter the desert of Lent like Jesus, led by the Holy Spirit, to face our devils, our temptations head on. But we are not alone. The Lord Jesus Christ is with us. And so, too, is the Church, the entire community of faith observing Lent. Here is what the Catholic Church in the United States requires of us as baptized Catholics:

1. The days of FAST (only one full meal) and ABSTINENCE (no meat) are Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. No dispensations are granted on these solemn days except for reason of sickness or those provided in canon law below. ALL OTHER FRIDAYS OF LENT are days of ABSTINENCE.

The pastor of a parish has the faculty to give a dispensation to individual parishioners in his parish and the Diocesan Bishop alone has the authority to dispense groups of Catholics but only for a serious reason.

2. Those who are automatically dispensed from fast and abstinence regulations outside the age limits noted below include: the physically or mentally ill, especially individuals suffering from chronic illnesses such as diabetes. Also included in the dispensation are women who are pregnant or nursing. In all cases, common sense should prevail, and ill persons should not further jeopardize their health by fasting.

3. Those between the ages of 18 and 59 are obliged to FAST (only one full meal) as noted above. From the age of 14, people are also obliged to ABSTAIN: this obligation prohibits the eating of meat, but not eggs, milk products or condiments of any kind, even though made from animal fat.

4. The obligation to observe the laws of fast and abstinence is a serious one for Catholics. Failure to observe one penitential day in itself is not considered a serious sin. It is the intentional failure to observe any penitential days at all, or a substantial number of penitential days, that must be considered a serious matter.

5. The obligation, the privilege really, of receiving the Eucharist at least once a year – often called “Easter duty” – for those in the state of grace should still be fulfilled during the period from the First Sunday of Lent, March 8-9, 2025, to Trinity Sunday, June 14-15, 2025. However, the Church’s law does permit this precept to be fulfilled at another time during the year when there is a just cause.

I want to encourage all Catholics, especially those who are conscious of serious sin, to go to Confession and to make use of the sacrifices and traditions that have always been part of our Lenten practices in the Church.

We do, indeed, fast and pray with the Lord Jesus and with our fellow Catholics. May this Lent be a time of Penance leading to grace and joy for us all at Easter

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend David M. O’Connell, C.M., Bishop of Trenton

AED's and where to find them!

An AED, or Automated External Defibrillator, is used to help those experiencing sudden cardiac arrest. It's a sophisticated, yet easy-to-use, medical device that can analyze the heart's rhythm and, if necessary, deliver an electrical shock, or defibrillation, to help the heart re-establish an effective rhythm. Sacred Heart has 2 AED units.

Automated External Defibrillator

One in the Church (in the Usher's Closet near the front entrance) and one in Casey Hall on the wall nearest the Ladies Room. St. Pio's also has 2 AED units. One in the Church parking lot side on the back wall just before St. Pio's Room and one in the Parish Hall on the back wall (street side). Please familiarize yourself with where these are so they can be retrieved in an emergency.

If you would like to lift your spirits and learn a little more about your faith and well-being, think about attending our Faith Sharing Group. The group meets once a week on Wednesdays at St. Pio's in Lavallette after morning Mass, and spends about one hour discussing the readings for the next Sunday and what they mean to us. All are welcome.

Contact Maureen Zebrowski at 732-259-1578 if you are interested or would like more information.

Please join the Breakfast Group if you are feeling down because of a loss in your life. We are a group of your fellow parishioners at Sacred Heart who have suffered from a loss recently or several years ago. We are a good group sharing our loss and how we manage to move forward. We pray, talk and laugh and enjoy goodies and coffee and tea. We meet the second Saturday of the month in the Parish Hall at 9:00 am. You come in feeling down and leave feeling lifted up. Try joining and meet all of us to journey together lifting each other up. Please come. Everyone is welcome and wanted.

Lent Bible Study As we read through the four Gospels, one of the most notable aspects of Jesus' ministry is His consistent use of questions when interacting with others. It is interesting to note that the word "question" includes the word "quest." Each question invites us to explore more deeply the significance of Jesus' life, not only in terms of who He was for His original disciples but also in terms of who He is for us today. Join us as we explore the profound questions posed by Christ.

Prayer Anthology # 69

Focus Point: As we begin to prepare for Lent we think more about the sorrowful time of Christ's Passion, from the Agony in the Garden to His Crucifixion. We know Jesus suffered his passion willingly. We also know that he stood alone at the Mount of Olives and asked the Father to "take this cup from Me." But, then he added, "Father, not my will, but Your will be done." As much as he didn't want to face what he knew was his fate, he trusted completely in the will of the Father. How do we respond in difficult times? As we face our own challenges and Pray for our intentions for others and ourselves, we too can pray for God's will to be done and to trust in God's will. It is through total trust in His will that we are able to humble ourselves and align our lives and all of it's outcomes with God's will. Father Joe has said "This is where we find our Peace." This Lent, let's give thanks for the sacrifice made for us through the sorrowful Passion of Jesus.

Prayer for Thankfulness for God's perfect Will

Dear Lord. I am thankful to You for all of my blessings, Your mercy and Your grace. Please help me to trust Your will, not only in good times, but in the most difficult of times. I am thankful for the beautiful example given to me by the life of Jesus. This Lent, help me to find time to spend in Thankfulness, Prayer, Reconciliation and Adoration and to concentrate on Jesus' journey from the Agony in the Garden to His Crucifixion. Help me to remember the pain and suffering He willingly endured for our sake as he prayed for the will of His Father. Please put in my heart the humility I need to realize that Your will is perfect. I pray that I am always able to be thankful for the gift of Your will...in good times and in the most adverse times. Amen.

Spiritual Adoption Monthly Report

Developing Baby - Month Five

Your spiritually adopted baby weighs over one pound now. His mother can now feel him moving. Before, he was too small for her to feel. Although he swam with ease in his watery world, he needed to be big and strong enough to kick hard against the uterine wall and dent it - the inside uterine wall has no feeling. You are midway through the pregnancy now. Your prayers have helped your baby's mother continue her pregnancy and seek the help she needs.

GOD OF LOVE AND LIFE

"A good person out of the store of goodness in his heart produces good, but the evil person out of a store of evil produces evil, for from the heart the mouth speaks." Luke 6:45

Out of the mouth of the evil person come words in support of child mutilation, infanticide and abortion.

Out of the mouth of the store of goodness of Catholics come words in support of life from conception to natural death.

Do you know 67% of 18 to 42 year olds support some limits on abortion.

Love God, Love Life, Produce Good
