Leo XIV is the new Pope

"Peace be with all of you!" - the first words of Pope Leo XIV. The Conclave has elected Robert Francis Cardinal Prevost as the 267th Bishop of Rome. The new pope was announced to the waiting crowds by Cardinal Protodeacon Dominique Mamberti.

Annuntio vobis gaudium:

HABEMUS PAPAM

Eminentissimum ac reverendissimum Dominum Robertum Franciscum
Sanctae Romanae Ecclesiae Cardinalem Prevost
qui sibi nomen imposuit Leo XIV

I announce to you a great joy:

WE HAVE A POPE

The Most Eminent and Most Reverend Lord Robert Francis Cardinal of the Holy Roman Church Prevost who has taken the name Leo XIV

From the central loggia of Saint Peter's Basilica, Cardinal Protodeacon Dominique Mamberti pronounced the formula "Habemus Papam," proclaiming to the city of Rome and to the whole world the news of the election of Robert Francis Cardinal Prevost as Pope Leo XIV.

Biography of Robert Francis Prevost, Pope Leo XIV By Vatican News

Leo XIV - Second Pope from the Americas The first Augustinian Pope, Robert Prevost - now Leo XIV - is the second Roman Pontiff from the Americas after Pope Francis. However, unlike Jorge Mario Bergoglio, the 69-year-old Robert Francis Prevost is from the northern part of the American continent, though he spent many years as a missionary in Peru before being elected head of the Augustinians for two consecutive terms.

First Augustinian Pope The new Bishop of Rome was born on September 14, 1955, in Chicago, Illinois, to Louis Marius Prevost, of French and Italian descent, and Mildred Martínez, of Spanish descent. He has two brothers, Louis Martín and John Joseph. He spent his childhood and adolescence with his family and studied first at the Minor Seminary of the Augustinian Fathers and then at Villanova University in Pennsylvania, where in 1977 he earned a Degree in Mathematics and also studied Philosophy. On September 1 of the same year, he entered the novitiate of the Order of Saint Augustine (O.S.A.) in Saint Louis, in the Province of Our Lady of Good Counsel of Chicago, and made his first profession on September 2, 1978. On August 29, 1981, he made his solemn vows.

He received his theological education at the Catholic Theological Union in Chicago. At the age of 27, he was sent by his superiors to Rome to study Canon Law at the Pontifical University of Saint Thomas Aquinas (Angelicum). In Rome, he was ordained a priest on June 19, 1982, at the Augustinian College of Saint Monica by Monsignor Jean Jadot, then Pro-President of the Pontifical Council for Non-Christians, now the Dicastery for Interreligious Dialogue. Prevost obtained his licentiate in 1984; and the following year, while preparing his doctoral thesis, was sent to the Augustinian mission in Chulucanas, Piura, Peru (1985–1986). In 1987, he defended his doctoral thesis on "The Role of the Local Prior in the Order of Saint Augustine" and was appointed vocation director and missions director of the Augustinian Province of "Mother of Good Counsel" in Olympia Fields, Illinois (USA).

Mission in Peru The following year, he joined the mission in Trujillo, also in Peru, as director of the joint formation project for Augustinian candidates from the vicariates of Chulucanas, Iquitos, and Apurímac. Over the course of eleven years, he served as prior of the community (1988–1992), formation director (1988–1998), and instructor for professed members (1992–1998), and in the Archdiocese of Trujillo as judicial vicar (1989–1998) and professor of Canon Law, Patristics, and Moral Theology at the Major Seminary "San Carlos y San Marcelo." At the same time, he was also entrusted with the pastoral care of Our Lady Mother of the Church, later established as the parish of Saint Rita (1988–1999), in a poor suburb of the city, and was parish administrator of Our Lady of Monserrat from 1992 to 1999. In 1999, he was elected Provincial Prior of the Augustinian Province of "Mother of Good Counsel" in Chicago, and two and a half years later, the Ordinary General Chapter of the Order of Saint Augustine, elected him as Prior General, confirming him in 2007 for a second term. In October 2013, he returned to his Augustinian Province in Chicago, serving as director of formation at the Saint Augustine Convent, first councilor, and provincial vicar—roles he held until Pope Francis appointed him on November 3, 2014, as Apostolic Administrator of the Peruvian Diocese of Chiclayo, elevating him to the episcopal dignity as Titular Bishop of the Diocese Sufar. He entered the Diocese on November 7, in the presence of Apostolic Nuncio James Patrick Green, who ordained him Bishop just over a month later, on December 12, the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe, in the Cathedral of Saint Mary. His episcopal motto is "In Illo uno unum"—words pronounced by Saint Augustine in a sermon on Psalm 127 to explain that "although we Christians are many, in the one Christ we are one."

Bishop of Chiclayo, Peru, from 2015 to 2023 On September 26, 2015, he was appointed Bishop of Chiclayo by Pope Francis. In March 2018, he was elected second vice-president of the Peruvian Episcopal Conference, where he also served as a member of the Economic Council and as president of the Commission for Culture and Education. In 2019, Pope Francis appointed him a member of the Congregation for the Clergy (July 13, 2019), and in 2020, a member of the Congregation for Bishops (November 21). Meanwhile, on April 15, 2020, he was also appointed Apostolic Administrator of the Peruvian Diocese of Callao.

Prefect of the Dicastery for Bishops On January 30, 2023, the Pope called him to Rome as Prefect of the Dicastery for Bishops and President of the Pontifical Commission for Latin America, promoting him to the rank of Archbishop.

Created Cardinal in 2024 Pope Francis created Prevost Cardinal in the Consistory of September 30 of that year and assigned him the Diaconate of Saint Monica. He officially took possession of his Titular church on January 28, 2024. As head of the Dicastery, he participated in the Pope's most recent Apostolic Journeys and in both the first and second sessions of the 16th Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops on synodality, held in Rome from October 4 to 29, 2023, and from October 2 to 27, 2024, respectively. Meanwhile, on October 4, 2023, Pope Francis appointed him as a member of the Dicasteries for Evangelization (Section for First Evangelization and New Particular Churches), for the Doctrine of the Faith, for the Eastern Churches, for the Clergy, for Institutes of Consecrated Life and Societies of Apostolic Life, for Culture and Education, for Legislative Texts, and of the Pontifical Commission for the Vatican City State.

Finally, on February 6 of this year, the Argentine Pope promoted him to the Order of Bishops, granting him the title of the Suburbicarian Church of Albano. During the most recent hospitalization of his predecessor at the "Gemelli" hospital Prevost presided over the Rosary for Pope Francis's health in Saint Peter's Square on March 3.

The 267th pope is set to inherit a deeply divided church: There are those who will want the new leader to remain on Pope Francis's reformist path and those who would want the next pontiff to return to a more traditional style. The conclave, which began on May 7, is the largest and least predictable in decades. There are 133 possible cardinal electors. Voting will continue until a candidate wins a two-thirds majority. There is one vote on the first day, and four votes each day afterward. If the Roman pontiff is not chosen in three days, the cardinals may pause for prayers and informal discussions for one day. The previous two conclaves were decided in two days. This conclave is the most diverse in the history of the Catholic Church, said Mathew Schmalz, a professor of religious studies at the College of the Holy Cross.

The Process: Shrouded in secrecy in the Sistine Chapel

Before the conclave begins, the Sistine Chapel will be set up to shield cardinals from outside influence while they vote, said Daniel Cosacchi, a papal expert at the University of Scranton, a Catholic and Jesuit university in Pennsylvania. The Sistine Chapel is home to Michelangelo's 500-year-old frescoes, including the "The Creation of Adam." The altar wall, the heart of the chapel almost entirely covered by Michelangelo's second iconic work — "The Last Judgement," is where the cardinals will come to place their vote, said Cosacchi. The chapel will be inspected by technical experts to ensure no audiovisual equipment has been surreptitiously placed inside. It will then become a sealed area until the election's conclusion. A wooden floor will be added to hide security devices like signal jammers and to give the cardinals a flat surface to walk on when they vote. The high windows of the Sistine Chapel will be boarded up to fully isolate the cardinals. There will be a pair of stoves and a stovepipe in the far end of the chapel, with a connected chimney.

At the end of each vote, the ballots are carried to the stoves and burned and chemicals are used to produce white or black smoke. Black smoke would indicate that the cardinals have not yet reached a two-thirds majority. White smoke means a successor has been chosen. As they write in their preferred candidate, the cardinals will sit in what's known as choir formations: two-three rows on either side of the chapel.

Nine cardinals will help with the voting. This includes three scrutineers, whose job includes counting, recounting, tying up and then burning the ballots; three infirmarii, who are charged with collecting the votes of the sick; and three revisers who check both the ballots and the notes made by the scrutineers to ensure no mistakes have been made.

Inside the chapel

The cardinals will enter the Sistine Chapel singing the hymn “Come Holy Spirit,” after which they will vow to hold the secrets of the conclave process, said Schmalz. Then, the master of papal liturgical celebrations will announce “Extra omnes,” or “Everybody out,” in Latin, leaving only voting cardinals inside. The doors of the Sistine Chapel will be locked and the voting will begin.

One by one, the cardinals will walk up to the scrutineers and take an oath in Latin. Each will then place his ballot in the urn. Cardinals are urged to disguise their handwriting while filling out the ballot to maintain the anonymity of the process, said Cosacchi. The Latin on the ballot translates to: “I choose as Supreme Pontiff.” After each cardinal has voted, in order of rank, the scrutineers begin counting the votes. One scrutineer shakes the urn to mix up the ballots. Another transfers the ballots from the first urn to the second while counting them.

Once all votes are cast, a scrutineer starts tallying the votes, announcing the name of each cardinal who has received a vote. A second scrutineer repeats this process. If the vote count of the first and second scrutineers match, the third scrutineer threads a needle through each ballot and ties them together, marking the end of each counting process. Pope Benedict XVI and Pope Francis were elected in four and five rounds of voting, respectively.

When the voting process leads to a winner, the cardinals approach him and the dean of the College of Cardinals asks: “Do you accept your canonical election as Supreme Pontiff?” If he says yes, he becomes the leader of the Roman Catholic Church. They then ask him the name by which he wants to be known. In this conclave, the current dean is over the eligible voting age and so the election will be led by Cardinal Pietro Parolin, the Vatican’s secretary of state, said Schmalz.

“Acceptasne electionem de te canonice factam in Summum Pontificem?”

Do you accept your canonical election as Supreme Pontiff?”

After the master of papal liturgical celebrations prepares a document stating the acceptance and the new name of the pope, the final ballots are burned and chemicals are used to emit white smoke from the chimney of the Sistine Chapel. The world will know a pope has been chosen, but his identity will remain confidential inside the Apostolic Palace.

After a liturgical ceremony in which the cardinals pray together and after meeting each cardinal in the chapel, the new pope will leave to go to the Room of Tears, said Cosacchi.

In the Room of Tears, the pope is fitted in his papal garments. Each pope decides which papal garments to wear for his first appearance. Francis, who wore only white garments to the balcony, was different from Benedict, who wore a red mozzetta (a short cape worn on the cassock) and a red and gold stole.

A white cassock, a red or white mozzetta and a skull-cap or zucchetto are the basic garments that the incoming pope may choose. The pope may also carry a ferula, a staff with a cross or a crucifix at its end.

The pope would then appear in the balcony of St. Peter’s Basilica at least an hour after accepting the papacy.

SPRING CAKELESS BAKE SALE

The R.A.S. is raising funds, we do it year to year.

We hope that you support,
the causes we hold dear.

So what to do? We ask ourselves, and pondered for a while.

"I know, we'll have a big bake sale!
That is just our style."

"Oh golly," said one lady,
"I can't bake," she sadly cried.

"But, maybe there's another way to help, if we all tried."

Consider the cost of your special cake,
The price of ingredients and time to bake!

Add up the costs, write a check,
No muss, no fuss, just a need met.

We're asking you to join us, in this simple plan!

Spiritual Adoption

Please spiritually adopt an unborn baby. Every day over 4,000 babies are killed by abortion. They have so little protection only the hand of God can end this massacre. Prayer is the best weapon to help them - the most effective.

Say this prayer every day for 9 months to save a baby's life!

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion.

Prayer of Archbishop Fulton J Sheen

"Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you." (Jeremiah 1:5)

GOD OF LOVE AND LIFE

FATHER, SON and HOLY SPIRIT

"Behold, God's dwelling is with the human race." Revelation 21:3

We adore and worship God and trust in Him when He says He will wipe away our tears and we will not be subject to mourning, wailing or pain.

And we thank Him that we are not counted among the cowards, the unfaithful, the depraved, murderers, the unchaste, sorcerers, idol-worshippers and deceivers. For there lot is the burning pool of fire and sulfur (see Revelation 21:8).

Do you know that in the words of Pope Francis:

"Abortion is murder".

Believe God, Believe the Pope, Love Life
