Marriages: Preparation for marriage is a joyous time, but also a rewarding spiritual journey. While many focus on the day of the wedding, we seek that you both flourish the second day and beyond. We are happy to accompany you on your journey. We ask that you do not schedule your venue date until you call the parish and schedule a meeting with one of our priests. Contact Marta Barkhausen at marta@stpioparish.com or call 732-793-7291 x322.

Baptisms: The Church shares the joy of families in the birth of children, and, with their parents, takes seriously the responsibility of bringing them up in the faith. Contact the office at 732-793-7291 or connie@stpioparish.com.

Anointing of the Sick: This sacrament is given for those facing serious illness or surgery, and for those of advanced years. If you or a family member is planning to enter the hospital, please see one of the priests following Mass or call the rectory if you would like to receive this sacrament.

Funerals and Memorial Masses: Contact John Paglione to begin the process: 732-598-1590.

Sponsorship Certificates: A sponsor must at least 16 years of age, have received the Sacrament of Baptism, Communion and Confirmation. If married, must be in a marriage recognized by the Catholic Church. Must attend Mass faithfully. Must be registered at the parish for at least 6 months. Please contact the office at 732-793-7291.

HIS FRIENDS - A reflection for May 5, The Sixth Sunday of Easter

One of the greatest gifts in life is a faithful friend. Such a friend is more than an acquaintance, a neighbor, a co-worker, a classmate, colleague, fellow sports fan, or individual with whom we share a common interest.

A faithful friend is someone who loves and cares about you, thinks the best of you, encourages your efforts, celebrates your successes, lifts you up when you fail, helps you whenever needed, never forgets important occasions, brings you joy, and stands by your side.

As we read in the scriptures, "Faithful friends are a sturdy shelter; whoever finds one finds a treasure. Faithful friends are beyond price, no amount can balance their worth" (Sirach 6:14-15). We can think of Jesus as the Son of God, the Prince of Peace, the Light of the World, the Word made flesh, the Savior, the Redeemer, and the Lord. But we also can think of Jesus as that perfect, faithful friend who always stands by us. He is the friend who even lays down his life so that we might be freed from sin and death and brought into an everlasting relationship with God.

But Jesus can also think of us in the same way we think of him, namely, as his friends. We learn that in Sunday's Gospel (John 15:9-17). In that Gospel, Jesus says the people who are his friends are those who love others in the same way that he loved. He tells us, "This is my commandment: love one another as I love you... You are my friends if you do what I command you." Jesus says the people he considers his friends are those to whom he has addressed the words that the God the Father sent him to proclaim. "I have called you friends because I have told you everything that I heard from my Father."

You and I think of ourselves as Christians, as followers of Christ—and we are. We recognize him as our Savior and Lord who speaks to us in the Scriptures and who touches us with his life-giving presence in the Sacraments. But Sunday's Gospel reminds us that the Lord thinks of us not just as his followers but also as his friends. We are the friends of Jesus Christ, and the Church is the place where his friends come together to grow closer to him and closer to one another.

What a friend we have in Jesus, and what friends Jesus has in us!

GOD OF LOVE AND LIFE FATHER, SON and HOLY SPIRIT

"This is my commandment; love one another as I love you."

John 15:12

Okay, but how? Jesus tells us we are to love one another as the Father loves Him and as He loves us. The Greeks have a word to describe this love. They call it agape. Agape is a deep, totally unconditional love that is given freely and without strings.

Our agape should include one another, the poor and the unborn baby.

Do you know that the recent Vatican publication, Dignitas Infinita, reaffirms that abortion is particularly serious and deplorable.

Month 7 and 8 Developing Baby

You are in the home stretch with your spiritually adopted baby. He is completely formed and has been since about 8 weeks. All he is doing now is gaining weight and making his mom uncomfortable with his size. In a short time the baby will be born. His mother has plans to take him home or to place him for adoption into a loving family. She knows she can receive assistance from the church and the pregnancy help centers. Your baby's mother appreciates the prayers that you have said for her and her baby throughout her pregnancy. It has not been easy, but your prayers have given her the grace to seek the help she needs.

Pray FOR THE SICK

Sick: Michael Garcia, Mary Finn, Mike & JoAnn Chiefa, Michelle Norek, Fr. Douglas Freer, Nick Lettas, Mary Anne Grandinetti, Baby Landon Wierks, Nicholas Meola, Joe Romano, Alan Kurinovich, Joseph Winchock, Antonette Daniels, Janet Daniels, Vince Covello, Fr. Joe Hlubik, Gina Kwortnik, Eileen Carroll, Alex Barletta, Jr., Judi Pecoraro, Maegan Higham, Bill Daniels, Mason Dill, Doris Gallo, Joan Blanchfield, Nanci Lopes, Amy Alexander, Carol Olsen.

Names will remain on the healing prayer list for 4 weeks; please call the parish office if you wish to extend.

Blessed, hand-made, Prayer Blankets are available for your loved ones at the St. Pio office, we ask for a free will donation to cover the cost of the material.

Deceased: Arline Daley, George Lucas, Charles Brady, Lorraine Schulz, Stevie Curtis, Rita Klas, Peter Barkhausen, Tyler Rusinko, Paul Burcz, Richard Perello, Andrew Capasso, Michael Donovan, Maureen Gillmore, Thomas Gage, Robert Charowsky, Gerald DeDreux, Frederick Chesterman, Paul Farrell, Matthew Morris, Ginny Mielnicki, Greg Buontempo, Karen Caufield, Carol Muller, Dolores Anilonis, Carol Ann Fabiyan, Cathleen Jennings

- EM3 Jacob Keller, US Coast Guard Cutter (deployed)

Prayer Anthology

Focus Point: As we enter the month of May and excitedly await Spring, First Holy Communion, and the May Crowning of our Blessed Mother, it's a great time to reflect on the questions: how often do we say the Rosary, how often should we say the Rosary? In 1917, the Blessed Mother gave these words to the Children of Fatima: "Say the Rosary every day to bring peace to the world and an end to the war."

During today's tumultuous times those words carry the same meaning. So, can we offer up some time each month, week or even each day to pray to the Blessed Mother through the Rosary? Praying to Mary to intercede for us and bring our intentions to her Son brings our focus to also be on Jesus. In this busy world maybe rather than "say" the whole Rosary quickly simply to "get it done" can we instead "Pray" as much of the Rosary as we have time for that day? Father Joe maintains that "praying the Rosary can answer our prayers in ways we never imagined". It will bring us closer to God and bring about change that we didn't even know we needed!

Prayer: Dear Lord, Please bless me with the eyes to see the importance of including the Blessed Mother in my Daily Prayer. Help me to gain her understanding of the glory and joy of the Resurrection despite the crucifixion of her Son. Let me thank her each day for my many blessings. Please let her guide me to pray each day for all souls in purgatory and the conversion of hearts. Let my love for her bring me closer to You and as she did let me hold all things in my heart with great humility and motherly love.

Our Lady of Fatima, Pray for us.

The Breakfast Club

of Sacred Heart Church

Meet
for Breakfast

Men and women living with grief over a loss in your life please join us for the Breakfast Club. We meet on May 11, Saturday, at 9:00 am, in the Parish Hall. Come and share with us some coffee/tea and food as we also share our journey dealing with and living with grief. We pray for those we have lost and share how we go on living. We are a good group. Give us a try.
