A Living Sacrifice in Christ Offering Our Lives as a Gift of Love

Offering All of Our Lives. All this requires, however, that as soon as we come out of Mass, we do our best to realize what we have said. It requires that we really strive, with all our limitations, to offer to our brothers and sisters our “body,” that is, time, energy, attention—in a word, our life. It is therefore necessary that, after having heard “Take, eat,” we really let ourselves “be eaten,” and let ourselves be eaten above all by those who do not do it with all the delicacy and grace that we would expect.

St. Ignatius of Antioch, going to Rome to die there as a martyr, wrote, “I am Christ’s wheat: may I be ground from the teeth of the beasts, to become pure bread for the Lord.” Each of us, if you look carefully around, has these sharp teeth that grind: they are criticisms, contrasts, hidden or open oppositions, differences of views with those around us, diversity of character.

Let’s try to imagine what would happen if we celebrated Mass with this personal participation—if we all really said, at the moment of consecration, some aloud and some silently, according to the ministry of each one, “Take, eat.” A parish priest celebrates his Mass in this way, then goes: he prays, preaches, confesses, receives people, visits the sick, listens, teaches. His day is also a Eucharist. A great French spiritual teacher, Pierre Olivaint (1816–1871), used to say, “In the morning, at Mass, I am the priest and Jesus the victim; throughout the day, Jesus is the priest and I the victim.” Whether or not we are ordained, for all the baptized, our days can also be a Eucharist.

Our Signature on the Gift. I would like to summarize, with the help of a human example, what happens in the Eucharistic celebration. Let’s think of a large family in which there is a son, the firstborn, who admires and loves his father beyond measure. For the father’s birthday, the son wants to give him a precious gift. Before presenting it to him, however, he secretly asks all his brothers and sisters to put their signature on the gift. This, therefore, arrives in the hands of the father as a sign of the love of all his children, without distinction, even if, in reality, only one has paid the price for it.

This is what happens in the Eucharistic sacrifice. Jesus admires and loves the heavenly Father endlessly. He wants to give him, every day until the end of the world, the most precious gift that one can think of, that of his own life. In the Mass, he invites all his brothers and sisters to put their signature on the gift, so that it reaches God the Father as the indistinct gift of all his children, even if only one has paid the price for this gift. And what a price!

The signature of all is the solemn “Amen,” which the assembly pronounces, or sings, at the end of the doxology: “Through him, and with him, and in him, O God, almighty Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is yours, forever and ever.” “AMEN!”

We know that those who have signed a commitment then have the duty to honor their “signature.” This means that, leaving Mass, we, too, must make our lives a gift of love to the Father for the good of our brothers and sisters. We, I repeat, are not only called to celebrate the Eucharist, but also to make ourselves a Eucharist. May God help us with this!

OCTOBER IS RESPECT LIFE MONTH

“Abortion and racism are both symptoms of a fundamental human error. The error is thinking that when someone stands in the way of our wants, we can justify getting that person out of our lives. Abortion and racism stem from the same poisonous root, selfishness.” Alveda King (niece of Martin Luther King)

FACTS of LIFE:

- “We believe unequivocally, like the majority of Americans, that every woman should be able to access high-quality reproductive health care services, including safe and legal abortion.” Democrat National Party Platform page 33

“The Catechism of the Catholic Church states: ‘Since the first century the Church has affirmed the moral evil of every procured abortion. This teaching has not changed and remains unchangeable. Direct abortion, that is to say, abortion willed either as an end or a means, is gravely contrary to the moral law.’” United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (No.2271)

DO YOU KNOW:

Since 1973 to 2020 there have been 62,000,000 abortions in United States (Guttmacher Institute). The entire populations of NY and Texas are 58,000,000. Catholics are the conscience of society. Firmly rooted in the Word of God, we are proudly pro-life. While we do not use the truth to wound, we must state the truth to all.

Big Thanks to Jack McCormack

Thank you, Jack for Chairing the Parish's 50-50 Raffle, for the past 5 years. You have organized the paperwork and the teams to success year after year. You masterfully led us through the raffle during the Covid year when in-person sales were prohibited. The 2023 campaign was a record breaker for you as we again surpassed the sales from the year before. All told, you helped earn the parish well over $100,000. We applaud your success and sadly accept your retirement from the Chairperson position. Thank you for your exemplary service to St. Pio Parish.

New Chairperson Needed

Our parish is in need of someone to fill the role of Raffle Chairperson. Thankfully, Jack McCormack put in writing all the tasks to be accomplished along a timeline of when they have to be done. The timeline starts with a few small tasks in February/March and ends with the post raffle report in early October. We need someone who is very organized and able to use Excel spreadsheets and email. Jack has promised to make the transition smooth and will sit with the new volunteer to explain everything. If you can help please contact our Business Manager, Marta Barkhausen at marta@stpioparish.com.
