SAINT JOHN CHRYSOSTOM

John Chrysostom was an illustrious Archbishop of Constantinople in the 5th Century and is considered as an eminent "Early Church Father". He is renowned for his denunciation of abuse of authority by both political leaders and ecclesiastical authorities, his ascetic sensibilities, his public speaking, thoughts and preaching. His name means "Golden Mouthed". Going by the quality of his surviving writings, Chrysostom was a prolific writer of his time, exceeded only by 'Augustine of Hippo'. In the Catholic, Anglican and Eastern Orthodox Churches he has been honored as a saint.

Chrysostom lived at a time not unlike our own, when greed and corruption were rampant; the rich grew richer and the poor poorer; the wealthy feasted and spent money recklessly while the lower classes starved or groaned under crushing debt; and no one call the powerful to account. He treated with primary importance the Lord's warning that our salvation depends on how we treat the poor, who are the embodiment of Christ.

Saint John Chrysostom:

"Happiness can only be achieved by looking inward and learning to enjoy whatever life has and this requires transforming greed into gratitude".

"Let none lament his poverty; for the universal Kingdom is revealed".

"Let none bewail his transgressions; for the light of forgiveness has risen from the tomb".

"Let none fear death; for death of the Saviour has set us free".

"Not to share our own wealth with the poor is theft from the poor and deprivation of their means of life: we do not possess our own wealth, but theirs".

"No matter how just your words may be, when you speak with anger, you ruin all: no matter how boldly you speak, how fairly reprove, or what not".

"Let no one mourn that he has fallen again and again, for forgiveness has risen from the grave".

"The Holy Scriptures were not given to us that we should enclose them in books, but that we should engrave them upon our hearts".

"Prayer is the place of refuge for every worry, a foundation for cheerfulness, a source of constant happiness, a protection against sadness."

John Chrysostom's preaching, by word and example, exemplifies the role of the prophet to comfort the afflicted and to afflict the comfortable. For his honesty and courage, he paid the price of a turbulent ministry as bishop, personal vilification, and exile.

St. John is the patron of orators, preachers and speakers, education and epilepsy.

GOD OF LOVE AND LIFE FATHER, SON and HOLY SPIRIT

“You cannot serve God and mammon.” Luke 16:13

Mammon, from Greek, means money, wealth or material possessions. It is sometimes used to describe all lusts and excesses. Jesus warns us again to stay faithful to God, keeping Him first in our lives and not to be seduced by materialism.

Serve the Lord your God. Reject materialism. Reject money. Reject lust. Reject abortion.

The second collection today is being taken for the AMERICA'S GLEANED SEAFOOD program which provides food for the hungry. We work with our Commercial Seafood Industry to provide fresh donated fish. New Jersey is home to a robust commercial fishing industry, harvest more than 120 million pounds of seafood annually. But a large percentage - up to 25 million pounds - is "bycatch", meaning it is not the fishermen's targeted species or for a variety of reasons, it is not marketable. This fresh fish, in the past, has been discarded overboard, it is perfectly good and is donated to AMERICAS GLEANED SEAFOOD to be processed, frozen and delivered to food banks.

We need your contribution to process the fresh fish. www.agsusa.org Box 94, Lavallette, NJ
